30 June 1966

Dear Admiral Raborn:

I am pleased to report that Messrs. [redacted]
[redacted] and [redacted] have successfully completed The National War College course on 3 June with excellent records of achievement.

My training evaluation reports on the three officers are forwarded, attached.

These three officers have made very good use of their time here to further their intellectual development and to increase their qualifications for career advancement. It has been a great pleasure to have them as students and associates.

Sincerely yours,

131

John M. Cabot
Deputy Commandant for Foreign Affairs
